

child

Love, Marriage & Kids

Valentine crafts and recipes

+ how to rekindle romance

LITTLE & LONELY

What to do when your child feels left out

GOOD HEALTH

- BETTER CHECKUPS
- SOLVING SKIN PROBLEMS
- SMART MOVES IN KIDS' FITNESS
- MUST-HAVE MEDICAL TESTS

DESIGN SECRETS

WHAT'S HOT NOW

In kids' books,
baby accessories,
weekend wear,
and more

What's Hot Now!

PERSONAL TOUCH

Parents can immortalize their children with the new trend in custom-made books. Among our favorites: a 40-page, pocket-size book of black and white photographs (above left) by New York City-based photographer Jordan Elyse Rosner, who shoots them at a location of your choice, $500 and up; jordanelyse.com. Above right: The fabric-bound book Good Stock: A Family Tale narrates your child's own family history and includes vintage illustrations, $124; good-stock.com.

RETRO RIDE

Among the best-constructed designs in the baby-carriage industry, Inglesina's Classic Pram is now available in this year's hottest shade: pink. The hand-painted porcelain side medallions, dainty lace curtains, and fine piquet cotton lining make strolling enjoyable for both babies and parents, $568; inglesina.com.

